Part 2: Read the paragraph about Bill, a writer. Decide if these sentences are True or False. (1 mark)
Circle T for true or F for false

I was born in the United States but I have written several travel books about England. I lived there with my wife and four children for 20 years, but for the last three years we have lived in the United States. Our children are now learning about life in the United States. I'm sure they will be happier because they have lived in two countries. I like Britain I want to return, but my daughter Felicity, is going to start college here soon, so it won't be for another four years.

I have just been to England for six weeks to work on a radio programme about the English language and also to talk about the book I've just written. Most writers don't like doing this; they don't like travelling around the country, selling their book. I don't mind it. I like visiting new places and meeting lots of people. It's very different from the life I have in the United States when I'm writing. In England, people drove me around in big cars and I stayed in expensive hotels. It was good because I didn't have to pay any bills. Everyone was kind to me and it was fun.

1. Bill returned to the United States after living in England for a long time T/F

Tom: Just think – this time next week we'll be enjoying our summer vacation! Isn't that great!

Lucy: I know I should be happy, but the truth is I'm not looking forward to my vacation at all.

Tom: Aren't you going away somewhere nice?

Lucy: We're going camping in France ... again!

Tom: But I thought you liked France.

Lucy: I do, but whenever I go, I go with my parents.

Tom: What would you prefer to do instead?

Lucy: Well, I asked mom and dad if I could go away with my friend Tina but they said I was too young to go on vacation on my own. What are you doing?

Tom: Can you believe it – I'm going to visit my pen pal in Germany!

Lucy: Wow! No wonder you're excited about your vacation!

Tom: Yeah, it's going to be great. I'm a bit nervous, though.

Lucy: Oh, I'd be a bit worried about traveling by myself, too. Don't worry though – I'm sure you'll be fine.

Tom: Oh no, it's not that. I'm more anxious about meeting my pen pal for the first time. We've been writing to each other for three years and we've never met.

Lucy: Don't worry! You have been working really hard to improve your German – you'll make a really good impression. I wish I were good at languages.

Tom: You know some French, don't you?

Lucy: A little. but I wish I knew more.

Tom: I know! Why don't you enroll in a summer class while you're in France? It would be fun and you could meet some new people.

Lucy: Sounds good, but I'm not sure I want to spend the summer studying!

Tom: Summer language classes often include outdoor activities, like horseback riding or cycling, you know. You don't stay in the classroom all the time. You would probably go on trips, too.

Lucy: I think I'll go and ask my French teacher Mrs. Hill if she can recommend any classes. It's definitely something worth thinking about.

Dear Márton

How are you? I'm having a great holiday in the Lake District with my girlfriend, Penny. It's a beautiful place. We arrived on Monday evening. We were late, because we couldn't find the hotel! On Tuesday, we visited Derwent Water, a large lake in the valley of Borrowdale. Yesterday, we climbed Scafell Pike, the highest mountain in England.

I noticed an advertisement in the hotel this morning: the hotel is looking for a receptionist. I applied for the job immediately! The pay is better than my job at The Arcadia – and Penny prefers the countryside to the city because it's more peaceful. Rent is cheaper, too.

That's all for now. See you soon!

Dave
